

PROFESSOR ORVIS RING PASSES AWAYNevada's Foremost Educator In the Past Generation Is No More.

RENO, Sept. 13.—Orvis Ring, state superintendent of public instruction for several terms, the unanimous candidate of both leading political parties for re-election to that office, and for over thirty years the foremost educator in Nevada, died tonight at St. George's hospital.

Professor Ring has suffered ill health which has rendered him almost an invalid for the past two years and a short time ago he devoted himself to nursing and caring for a young man of his acquaintance who was taken ill without funds. It is believed that this work caused a recurrence of ailments from which the aged man suffered before and hastened his death.

Professor Ring was 77 years of age and few men in Nevada have enjoyed a wider acquaintance or been more universally beloved by all classes of people. It is a fact known to many, although carefully concealed by himself, that he has expended a large part of his modest income for many years for the education of boys who were without means to pay for their education, and there are many stories of his liberality and unselfishness in caring for others.

The death of Professor Ring at this time will render necessary the filling of the vacancy thus created on the ticket by the state central committee, which will meet together with the party candidates in Carson City on September 27 to formulate a platform. Section 27 of the primary law provides as follows:

"Vacancies occurring after the holding of any primary election shall be filled by the party committee of the city, county, city and county, district or state, as the case may be."

STATE AND LEGISLATIVE NOMINEES WILL MEET IN CARSON ON 27

Both Parties Will Formulate Platforms, Appoint State Central Committees and Transact Other Business.

The state convention of both parties will meet in Carson on the 27th of this month to formulate platforms and appoint state central committees. These conventions will be composed of the candidates and elected members of the various county committees. Section 26 of the primary election law says:

"In the years when a governor and other state candidates are to be elected the candidates for state offices and for the senate and assembly nominated by each political party at such primary election and state senators of such political party whose term of office extends beyond the first Monday in January of the year next ensuing shall meet at the state capital at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of the fourth Tuesday of September after the date on which any primary election is held preliminary to such general state election. They shall forthwith formulate the state platforms of their party, which said state platforms of each political party shall be framed at such time that it shall be made public not later than 6 o'clock in the afternoon of the following Tuesday. It shall also proceed to elect a state central committee, to consist of at least three members from each county, who shall hold office until a new state central committee shall have been selected. In years when a state convention assembles to select delegates to a national convention to nominate a candidate for president or vice president of the United States, such convention shall have the power to formulate their party platform and to select such new state central committee, which shall consist of at least one member from each county, which committee shall hold and exercise its power until the candidates for state offices and for senate and assembly to be voted for at the next ensuing state election shall assemble and select their successors. Such state central committee shall meet and organize at a time and place to be designated by the body selecting such committee may then thereafter select an executive committee.

CLUB ROOMS TO BE INSTALLED IN THE ELKS HALL

FRONT PORTION OF BUILDING
TO BE DEVOTED FOR SOCIAL PURPOSES.

The Tonopah lodge of Elks spent a busy session Tuesday night when four candidates beheld the antics of the lodge goat — pronounced goat. The aforesaid goat was in fine trim and the way it trimmed the candidates was sad to behold. However, with the aid of bandages the victims were able to present a presentable sight at the conclusion of the meeting and the customary banquet, which followed. The new candidates who had the antlers tacked on them were, Bob Christian, Frank Darragh, Alexander Oswald and William Mitchell.

The Elks are contemplating fixing up the front part of the second story of the Elks hall, into comfortable club rooms, and committees have been appointed to see after the work. The new rooms will be complete in every detail and when completed will afford a comfortable lounging place for the members of the order.

JAMES CONLISK IS NOW EXPECTED TO RECOVER

LEAVES FOR LOS ANGELES TO GREET BABY GIRL WHICH ARRIVED TUESDAY.

"Greetings," said Dr. James W. Conlisk yesterday morning as he came to the door of his residence and beheld a messenger boy.

"Greetings," returned the lad and handed James W. a message. "Greetings Papa," was what the message read, and then Conlisk hot-footed it down town to inform the populace that he was the father of a baby girl, which was born in Los Angeles Tuesday night. The message was from Mr. Conlisk's brother and stated that Mrs. James W. and daughter were progressing nicely.

Of course the cigars were sent around and an extra box left at the Bonanza office. The proud papa was so excited that he came near leaving two boxes here, but at that he wasn't exactly responsible, and it was only after a few of his friends took him in tow that he was able to make the noon train, for he was quite anxious to get to Los Angeles and behold the newest addition to the family.

HALF MILLION PIECES OF PIE IN A YEAR AT PANAMA

The opponents of pie—there are strangely enough such curious and erratic persons—will find food for thought and pious reflection (we mean no double pun) in the official statement recently issued by the isthmian canal commissioners that the truly and great American delicacy has performed a substantial service in the construction of the great interoceanic cut. The consumption of pie for one year by the canal workmen reached the enormous total of 124,414 specimens of this succulent gastronomic genus — fit fare for ancient gods of modern American gourmets, when the crust is rightly shortened and the filling of proper consistency dimensioned pie as a satisfactory allotment—more than 500,000 portions of crisp and juicy pie have sustained and sweetened the labors of the operatives.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

ONE PRECINCT IN LINCOLN COUNTY HAD NO ELECTION

PIOCHE, Nev., Sept. 13. — No election was held in one precinct in Lincoln county. Lake Valley precinct, where there were fourteen registered voters, at least twelve of which were Republican, was shut out.

One of the inspectors, J. F. Wamboldt, refused to allow the use of his place for the election because a brother-in-law was also an inspector and against whom he held a grudge.

Wamboldt's case will be taken up by the grand jury, called for next Monday.

TIMBERMAN HAS OPTIC PERFORATED AT THE BELMONT

LEAVES FOR LOS ANGELES TO SECURE TREATMENT FROM SPECIALIST.

George Kordich, a timberman at the Belmont mine, yesterday sustained an injury that will cause him the loss of his right eye. Kordich was employed in cutting timbers with an axe when a chip flew up and a sharpened edge struck him in the optic, perforating the eye ball.

Kordich secured the services of a physician and had the wound dressed. He departed on the noon train for Los Angeles, where he will enter a hospital and undergo treatment under an eye specialist.

George Tomonovich, also employed at the Belmont, had a finger crushed Monday, which later was amputated. The bone was crushed in a frightful manner and amputation was necessary. He is reported as improving rapidly.
